SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

If you're interested in a career in law enforcement, now is the time to apply for a rewarding position with the Placer County Sheriff's Department.

Qualified applicants for the Deputy Sheriff I position must have completed a P.O.S.T. (Police Officers Standards and Training)-approved law enforcement academy. Deputy Sheriff II applicants must currently be employed by a California law enforcement agency.

Testing has been tentatively scheduled for January 8 and 9, 2002, according to Lt. John Fitzgerald. Applicants will take part in a written test and physical agility testing, as well as an oral interview.

Applications may be obtained from the Placer County Sheriff's website, www.placer.ca.gov/sheriff. Forms are also available at the Sheriff's Department or at the county personnel office on Fulweiler Avenue in Auburn. For more information, contact Lt. Fitzgerald at (530) 889-7862.

Applications must be submitted to the Placer County Personnel Department no later than Friday, November 30, 2001. If eligible, applicants will be notified of the testing times and locations. Placer County offers its employees an extensive benefit package, including retirement and deferred compensation plans, health, dental and life insurance plans, as well as competitive salaries.

Early next spring, the department will conduct testing for correctional officers to work in the Placer County Main Jail. No experience or P.O.S.T. certification is required to become a correctional officer, and the department provides all required training.
